Finally, the LEA's plan must be in an understandable and uniform format, written in a language that parents can understand, orally translated and, upon request by a parent who is individual with a disability, provided in an alternative format accessible to that parent. The committee recommends spending the ARP ESSER III funds to help encourage and retain teachers. Teachers are the backbone and all-stars of all education and retaining good teachers is a priority to meet the needs of the students in all areas. Teachers are experts in assessing and evaluating learning loss, learning disabilities, and recognizing mental health issues and child abuse. Retaining good experts is crucial to our district and community. We have entered an interlocal coop to provide virtual education and we will bolster that program with these funds. This will allow students to learn in the safe environment they choose.

The committee recommends the following to address learning loss in student subgroups: Additional counseling services as well as rich and diverse curriculum to help identify and address the needs of each specific subgroup. The counseling services will be able to individually and in a group setting address specific needs that pertain to students who are facing unique circumstances because of the diversity of students. IEP, EL, Low SES, and others will all have unique circumstances that will need to be addressed. The curriculum can be modified to allow for unique backgrounds that will be more suited to students of subgroups.
